

January 2009

The Manor House and Golf Club awarded its first Michelin star

Executive Chef Richard Davies and his team at Bybrook Restaurant are delighted to have won their first Michelin star for 2009. The Michelin guide is arguably the most revered restaurant guide amongst chefs, restaurant critics and guests alike and this is the start of a very promising year for all the Bybrook Restaurant team at The Manor House Hotel, in which only three restaurants in Wiltshire hold these coveted stars.

Since taking up his position in August 2007, Richard Davies and his team have worked tirelessly towards this goal; 'It could not have been a better start to the new year', says Richard 'I knew The Manor House was where I wanted to be and this accolade gives us a much needed boost to keep going and ultimately make Bybrook Restaurant one of the most enjoyable dining destinations in the county'.

The Manor House Hotel and Golf Club (1 hr 20 mins from London - Nr Bath) boasts 365 acres of land and is situated in the charming and beautiful village of Castle Combe. The 48 bedrooms are all individually designed and former guests include Margaret Thatcher, Michael Douglas and Gwyneth Paltrow .

Executive Chef, Richard Davies is a fantastic coup for The Bybrook Restaurant. At 30 years of age, Richard's experience includes three Michelin Star Restaurant Gordon Ramsay in Chelsea and The Vineyard at Stockcross. Richard and his team show great promise in taking The Manor House to new culinary heights and housing Wiltshire Saddleback pigs and a brood of ginger nut chickens, as well as tending to a beautifully manicured Kitchen Garden, show how local produce remains at the heart of their cooking.
